MARKET EXPERT TO GET SEALER'S PLACE

Commissioners Enlist Aid of Department of Agriculture to Find Man.

In seeking an expert to fill the office superintendent of weights, measures, and markets, the Commissioners have nlisted the aid of the Department of griculture. The appointment probably ill be made within the next week. The establishment of municipal mar-ets is a question that is now receiving attention at the hands of the department, in which there was established recently a division of markets. The aim of the Commissioners, it was said, is to chtain a man capable of 20-operating to the fullest extent with the Depart-ment of Agriculture in demonstrataing he possibilities of markets under the the possibilities of markets under the supervision of the municipalities. Asked concerning the appointment of the superintendent of weights, measures, and markets. Commissioner Siddons, who has supervision of that office, today

"In filling the vacancy caused by the recent death of Col. W. C. Haskell, the Commissioners believe that an opportunity is presented to work in close cooperation with the Department of Agriculture is the control of Agriculture in the control of t culture in the development of our mu-nicipal markets in a manner which it is inclieved may be made exceedingly use ful and productive of the best results, financially and otherwise.

Within the year the Secretary of Agriculture has established in his department a division of markets, and this division is making a study of the sub-ject that is country wide. During the next twelve months this division will next twelve months this alvision vin-give special attention to municipal mar-kets, and it may be that at the Capital a demonstration may be made by the co-operative action of the department and the municipal government that will mean much for the people of the local-ity, as well as be an example for the rest of the country.

For these reasons the Commissioners hope to have the aid of the Department of Agriculture in selecting a man for the position who has made a study of the subject, who has practical experience, and who is imbued with the spirit which is necessary to make successful which is necessary to make successfu
